

	Stage 1: Prior to School Reopening (Not allowed to open)	Stage 2: Partially Open (Some levels allowed to come)	Stage 3: Fully open (All levels physically at school)
WELL-BEING & PROTECTION (STUDENTS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ALLOW sufficient mental health and psychosocial support within the limitations of an online learning environment. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Regular monitoring of students' online class attendance for early signs of student attrition issues. Communication with parents and students to understand students' academic and mental health matters. Virtual consultation sessions by teachers as needed for students. Health and wellness awareness programs. Virtual social events. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> INCREASE provision of mental health and psychosocial support services to support children and their families in coping with the continued uncertainties of the pandemic so as not to hinder academic achievement. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Assessment of DASS (Depression, Anxiety and Stress Scale) Test for IGCSE exam year students. Face-to-face follow-up sessions upon completion of DASS assessment. Regular monitoring of students' class attendance for early signs of student attrition issues. Communication with parents and students to understand students' academic and mental health matters. Face-to-face and virtual consultation sessions for identified students. Organize health and wellness awareness programmes. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ENHANCE provision of mental health and psychosocial support services to support children and their families in coping with the continued uncertainties of the pandemic so as not to hinder academic achievement. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Assessment of DASS (Depression, Anxiety and Stress Scale) Test for secondary students. Face-to-face follow-up sessions upon DASS assessment. Regular monitoring of students' class attendance for early signs of student attrition. Communication with parents and students to confirm well-being situations. In-person consultation sessions for identified students where possible. Increase in-person health and wellness awareness programmes.

	Stage 1: Prior to School Reopening (Not allowed to open)	Stage 2: Partially Open (Some levels allowed to come)	Stage 3: Fully open (All levels physically at school)
WELL-BEING & PROTECTION (STUDENTS)		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 7. Resume physical social events if allowed as per SOP to increase students' interaction with the school community. 8. In the event of COVID-19 cases in the school compound: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> i. School will inform Pejabat Kesihatan Daerah (PKD) about the positive case and respond to their advice accordingly. ii. Parents of the positive COVID-19 student will be informed by the Student Affairs (SA), and the student is to be picked up within 2 hours. iii. Close contacts will be contained in one area, parents will be informed by SA, and the students are to be picked up within 2 hours. iv. Operation team will respond to the disinfection process - the infected classroom and other rooms on the same floor will be disinfected. v. Other classes on that floor will shift to online learning until further notice. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 7. Resume physical school events where permissible to increase students' interaction with the school and outside community. 8. Helpline via google form to encourage students to share their concerns anonymously to obtain advice. 9. In the event of COVID-19 cases in the school compound, follow guidelines in Stage 2.